'JOCK'S WAGGIN' TONGUE

Vol. 26 Thur. Jan. 1 No. 1
Jock McIntyre, Editor.

Batteries! Batteries!! Batteries!!! Your radio won't work without 'em! With news coming over the radio almost every hour, be sure your power is up to snuff.

—“v”—

Beat war with your vices—at peace with your neighbors—and let every New Year find you a better man.

—“v”—

We hope the pump doesn't freeze up this cold weather, but if it does—our stock of Beatty pumps, cylinders and repairs is complete.

—“v”—

Johnny Harper is reported to be improving steadily at Carmangay hospital.

—“v”—

ONE ONLY Cast iron tank heater—Give a thought to poor Bossie lapping up that ice cold water. Tek! Tek!

—“v”—

Robert Doyle is in town for a few days leave. He says the army is treating him just fine.

—“v”—

23 rifles are really scarce. It is impossible to reorder them. We have a Savage single shot, a Cooney single shot and a Remington repeater. And the price is right.

—“v”—

If you find the Waggin' Tongue draped in black next week, you will know the hardware cat didn't make it.

—“v”—

We have a very complete stock of flashlights and batteries and bulbs. Don't take a chance on an accident—Replenish now.

A Hint for the Future

When peace comes there most probably will be a big demand for quality breeding stock from Europe. Farmers who are making profits now from livestock might, with advantage later to themselves, plough some profits back in improving quality.
